May 1 – “La La Land”

(Rated PG– 13, Runtime: 128 mins, Comedy, Drama, Music)

Mia, an aspiring actress, serves lattes to movie stars in between auditions and Sebastian, a jazz musician, scrapes by playing cocktail gigs in dingy bars, but as success mounts they are faced with decisions that begin to fray the fragile fabric of their love affair, and the dreams they worked so hard to maintain in each other threaten to rip them apart.

(Starring: Emma Stone and Ryan Gosling)

May 22 – “Hidden Figures”

(Rated PG Runtime: 127 mins; Biography, Drama, History)

As the United States raced against Russia to put a man in space, NASA found untapped talent in a group of African– American female mathematicians that served as the brains behind one of the greatest operations in U.S. history. Based on the unbelievably true life stories of three of these women, known as “Human computers”, we follow these women as they quickly rose the ranks of NASA alongside many of history’s greatest minds specifically tasked with calculating the momentous launch of astronauts John Glenn into orbit, and guaranteeing his safe return. Dorothy Vaughan, Mary Jackson, and Katherine Johnson crossed all genders, race, and professional lines while their brilliance and desire to dream big, beyond anything ever accomplished before by the human race.

(Starring: Taraji P. Henson, Octavia Spencer, Janelle Monae)
